Canadians, get ready to be a full on police state by Christmas with full 1984-level government control if Parliament passes three bills this session.
The Justice Centre for Constitutional Freedoms is warning about bills C-2, C-8 and C-9.

We'll break them down but together they would allow the government to open your mail, criminalize the use of cash, allow for warrantless search, prosecute Canadians for opinions, kick you off the Internet, have full access to your social media data straight from the social media companies and allow your neighbor to report you for possible hate crimes so that the government would put you on house arrest because they don't like how you use the Internet!

Canada has gone totally INSANE!
